THE PENAL CODE OF THE KINGDOM OF SOLQUELUM

The Kingdom of Solquelum
Commission on Human Rights

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the Kingdom of Solquelum, in order to establish justice, ensure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do hereby ordain and establish this Penal Code for the Kingdom of Solquelum.

CAVEAT

Considering the unique nature of the Kingdom of Solquelum as a micronation with virtual citizenship, this Penal Code addresses offenses that fall within its jurisdiction, primarily concerning conduct related to citizenship, digital activities, and the electoral process. Crimes that would typically fall under the jurisdiction of nations with physical territories are outside the scope of this Code and will be handled by the legal systems of the countries where those acts occur.

CHAPTER I — GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article I: Authority and Oversight

Section 1 The Constitutional Committee, particularly the Commission on Human Rights, holds the authority to oversee the implementation and enforcement of this Penal Code. The Commission on Human Rights, as established by the Constitution of the Kingdom of Solquelum, shall not be abolished.

Article II: Purpose and Scope

Section 1 This Penal Code serves to define offenses against the laws of the Kingdom of Solquelum and to prescribe the corresponding penalties. It applies to all citizens of the Kingdom, regardless of their physical location, and to any individual or entity, regardless of citizenship, that commits an offense within the digital or virtual jurisdiction of the Kingdom of Solquelum.

CHAPTER II — DEFINITION OF TERMS

Article I: Definitions

- Section 1 Digital Rights refers to the rights of individuals as outlined in Article IV of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Solquelum, including but not limited to, the right to privacy in digital communications and data, and the right to freedom of expression online.
- Section 2 Citizen of the Kingdom of Solquelum refers to any individual who has been granted citizenship by the Kingdom of Solquelum, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and related laws. Given the unique nature of the Kingdom, this citizenship is virtual.
- Section 3 Digital or Virtual Jurisdiction refers to the online space and digital platforms operated by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Solquelum, including but not limited to official websites, online forums, and digital voting systems.
- Section 4 King refers to the reigning monarch of the Kingdom of Solquelum.
- Section 5 Solquelum Aurin (SAU) refers to the official currency of the Kingdom of Solquelum.
- Section 6 Office within the Kingdom of Solquelum refers to any position, whether elected or appointed, within the government or institutions of the Kingdom, as defined by the Constitution and related laws.
- Section 7 License refers to any permission, permit, or authorization granted by the Kingdom of Solquelum, or its authorized agencies, to an individual or entity to engage in a specific activity, right, or privilege. This includes, but is not limited to, digital business licenses, professional certifications, and operation permits for online platforms.
